Information Architecture

Index webpage (home)-background color will be cyan

Top of page will have a picture of 1900x1080 with width that will take up the full page and about 1/5 of the webpage follow by one row with three boxes with title and text.

Continue down with the page one row with six boxes with pictures size of 700x450 and text

At the end of the page will be one box with picture and some text

About webpage-background color of cyan

On top left of the page will be one picture of 700x450 and text box on the right side of the picture

Follow by team member info of one row and three boxes to show staff and management

Bottom of the page will be business customers of one row and six boxes of picture with size of 500x300

Service webpage-background color of cyan

Will contain 1 picture of 1200x300 on top of the page

Continue down the page will be one row with three boxes with title and text but no pictures

The contact webpage- no background color

Top left will be map/location of the company and contact info

At the end of the page will be template for customer to contact via message